

Presbyterian Anesthesia Associates, PA
presents
PEDS, PAIN, AND PAY FOR PERFORMANCE
Second Annual Anesthesiology Review Conference

Saturday, April 25 2009

07:30- 13:00

Multipurpose Room
Basement (below Cafeteria)
Presbyterian Main Hospital

Topics (Times listed are estimates – will update closer to Conference date):

Pearls in Neonatal and Pediatric Anesthesia (45 min)
Calvin Cameron, MD

Caudal Blocks and Pediatric Acute Pain Management (45 min)
Paul Fronapfel, MD

Principles and Practice of Epidural Analgesia (45 minutes)
John Sandoval, MD

Pay for Performance (15 min)
Samuel Sayson MD

Break (15 minutes)

Current Approach to Special Topics in Anesthesia:
ICDs/Brain Stimulators/Endocarditis Prophylaxis/Drug Eluting Stents/Beta Blockers/Serum K+ (45 min)
Samuel Sayson MD

Continuous Peripheral Nerve Block Catheters: What's in it for me!?!? (50 min)
Michael McNelis, MD

A Picture is Worth a Thousand Twitches – Ultrasound Guided Regional Anesthesia (50 min)
James Benonis, MD

Refreshments will be provided during the break

Tuition: None – Contributions to the Ricardo Fund (a tax deductible scholarship program for perioperative and anesthesia staff) will be accepted in lieu of tuition fees.

Objective: To update attendees in latest approaches in special topics in anesthesiology using current literature, up-to-date techniques and practical approaches when applicable.

Up to Five Hours Category 1 CME Credit

SPACE IS LIMITED: Please be prompt. Anesthesiologist invitees outside of Presbyterian Charlotte please RSVP by March 31 to Emily Williams at (704) 749-5800 ext 104, or email at emily.williams@presbyanesthesiology.com. Calling early will help us reserve you a seat.